

ukuleles in the park

with the Seattle Ukulele Players Association

August 3, 2008, 10am 'til dusk

Woodland Park, Shelter 6

Join SUPA for a fun-filled afternoon of ukulele music, open mic, barbecue, and fellowship. Hear great ukulele music! Play along with everyone! Sing as loud as you can!

Suggested bring-alongs:

- Your own grillables and something to share
- Ukulele, SUPA songbooks and music stand
- Portable folding chair for song circle
- Cooler, ice, beverages
- Outdoor games – Frisbee, croquets sets, etc...
- Sunscreen
- Friends, family, kids, everyone is welcome!

SUPA will provide:

Picnic disposables (plates, forks, napkins), charcoal briquettes, a selection of beverages

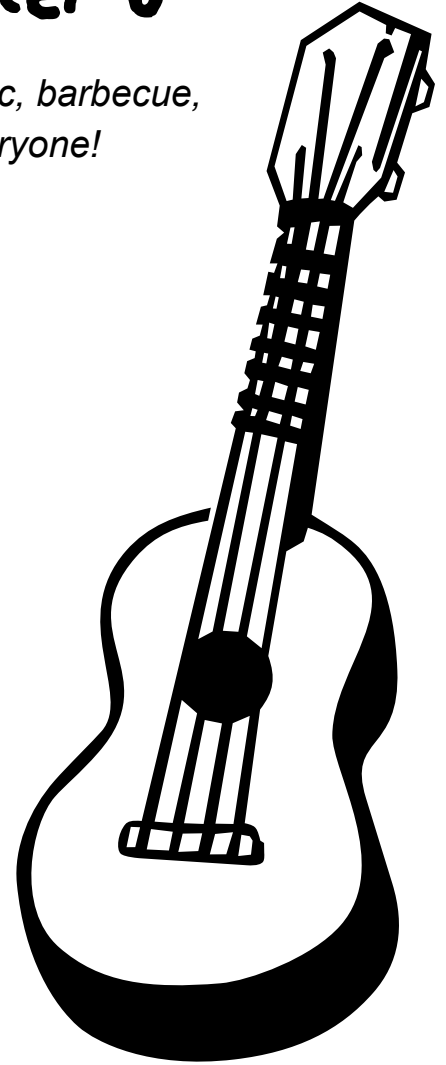

Schedule – subject to change as whimsy dictates

- 10:00am: Early arrivals with coffee and breakfast snacks
- 11:30am: Let the grilling begin!
- 12:00am: Open mic: Entertainment featuring YOU!
- 2:00pm: Song circle as usual
- 4:30pm: Dawdling, socializing, and noodling with ukes until dusk

Important details:

Alcohol is not permitted in public parks. Dogs must be leashed.
Please care for the site by taking your garbage with you when you leave.

More info & map: www.seattleukulele.org

get outside and play!