

Beneath A Mountain Peak

Words & Music by Carel Neffenger, 2005 - 'cuz they wanted a yodeling song!

INTRO: (With Yodeling - follow soloist)

F Bb
A fine young lad from Salzburg went looking for a bride,
C7 F
Wandering the mountains with his farm dog by his side.

Bb
He came upon a farmer's house, was greeted, "Come inside!"
C7 F
And there he spied a daughter who soon would be his bride.

F Bb
They married on that mountain of alpine flowers in spring.
C7 F
His farm dog barked and howled as the church bells all did ring.
Bb
He kissed her with a passion only true love can bring,
C7 F
A love that flows forever like a blue alpine spring.

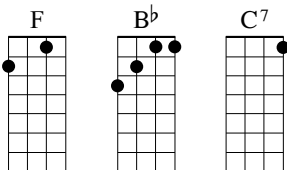

CHORUS:

F Bb C7 F
[Yodel], [Yodel], [Yodel], [Yodel] (x2 + 2 bars)

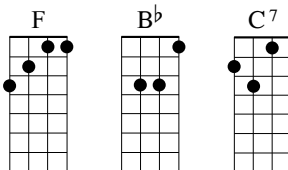

F Bb
Whenever you go wandering be careful what you seek.
C7 F
It could be love; it could be joy; of marriage you may speak.
Bb
A farmer daughter's smile can make your heart go weak.
C7 F
You never know just what you'll find beneath a mountain peak!

CHORUS + END

Soprano

Baritone

Intro & End:
Chorus, but single strums and slower, then 2 bars
F-Bb-C7-F, F-Bb-C7-F, Fx2
