

I'm Beginning to See the Light

Words & Music by Don George, Johnny Hodges, Duke Ellington and Harry James (1945)

Soprano Baritone

B^m G B^{m7}
I've never cared much for moonlit skies.

D^{m6} E^{m7} G^{m7}
I never wink back at fire flies.

B^{m7} C⁹ B⁷
But now that the stars are in your eyes,
E⁷ A⁷ D A⁺

I'm beginning to see the light.
B^m G B^{m7}

I never went in for afterglow,
D^{m6} E^{m7} G^{m7}
Or candelight on the mistletoe.

B^{m7} C⁹ B⁷
But now when you turn the lamp down low,
E⁷ A⁷ D

I'm beginning to see the light.

F^{#7}
Used to ramble through the park,
F⁷

Shadow boxing in the dark.
E⁷

Then you came and caused a spark
B^{b7} A⁷ A⁺

That's a four alarm fire now!
B^m G B^{m7}
I never made love by lantern shine.

D^{m6} E^{m7} G^{m7}
I never saw rainbows in my wine.
B^{m7} C⁹ B⁷

But now that your lips are burning mine,
E⁷ A⁷ D
I'm beginning to see the light.
