

S-U-P-A

Apologises to Queen and songwriters: Henri Belolo, Jacques Morali, and Willis

Soprano

Baritone

E7 / / / / / / / /

A
People, are you looking for fun?

F#m
I say, People, wanna learn how to strum?

D
You can buy-a, cheap uke at a store and then...

E7
you- - can-join-the-fun-cuz...

A
When you, start strumming those strings

F#m
you can feel all, the joy that it brings.

D
You will play songs, everybody will sing and you'll

E7
have- - a-good-time-play-ing. (Break)

A F#m
It's fun to play with the S-U-P-A. It's fun to play with the S-U-P-A.

Bm
You can stand up in front. You can play and sing loud.

E7
You can hide behind all of the crowd.

A F#m
It's fun to play with the S-U-P-A. It's fun to play with the S-U-P-A.

Bm
You can see lots of ukes, any shape, any size...

E7
you could win a ridic-u-lous prize.

(A) Sunday, that's the day that we meet.

Come and (F#m) join us. You just pick out a seat.

There are (D) people, who will share their songbooks with you...

(E7) Ne-ver-fear- though-you're-new.

(A) Raffles, are a great way to get...

Stuff from (F#m) SUPA. But just never forget

It's the (D) winning. It's not always the prize when you

(E7) get-what-mo-ney-can't-buy. / / / / / (Break)

It's fun to play with the (A) S-U-P-A. It's fun to play with the (F#m) S-U-P-A.

Strum a (Bm) tune on a uke. It's a feeling sublime.

Come and (E7) join us and have a good time.

Fade out:

(A) It's fun to play with the S-U-P-A. It's fun to play with the (F#m) S-U-P-A.

La-lah (Bm) la-la-la-lah, (D) Dee-de dee-de-de-de

Umpah (E7) loompah and Zip-ah de doo dah (strum chorus out)

