

She Sang "Aloha" To Me

Words and music by Joseph B. Carey, 1915

Soprano Baritone

Intro: E⁷ A⁷ D A⁷ D /NC

D
A⁷
 Across the sea 'neath fair Hawaiian skies I long to be,
D
 For there a maiden fond and true awaits for me.
D⁷
G
 In dreams I seem to hear her sing so tenderly,
D
A⁷
D
(D⁷)
 The song of songs that stole my heart away.

G
D
 She sang "Aloha," while stars were gleaming,
A⁷
D
(D⁷)
 She sang "Aloha," farewell to thee.
G
D
 I hear her calling, with love enthralling,
A⁷
D
/NC
 My own true sweetheart across the sea.

D
A⁷
 Across the sea where hearts are ever true I long to be,
D
 Where songs of love and sweet caresses wait for me.
D⁷
G
 And soon the wedding bells will ring so tenderly,
D
A⁷
D
(D⁷)
 The song of songs that stole my heart away.

G
D
 She sang "Aloha," while stars were gleaming,
A⁷
D
(D⁷)
 She sang "Aloha," farewell to thee.
G
D
 I hear her calling, with love enthralling,
A⁷
D
 My own true sweetheart across the sea.

